To the Parties:

Good morning! At yesterday's Commission meeting, consistent with Heather's December 3, 2020 letter in these Dockets, the Commission appointed me as Hearing Officer for the purpose of conferencing with the parties regarding the proposed revised procedural schedule dates contained in Heather Smith's letter of December 3, 2020. Once we establish the date and time for the call, I will give you a conference number to call. If this date and time is not acceptable, please be aware, for rescheduling purposes, that I will be out of pocket Friday until about 2 pm, and late Monday morning until the end of the day Monday. David,

ORS could make someone available to be on the call at that time, however, both Ms. Pittman and myself are also counsel for ORS on a hearing scheduled in Docket 2019-209-E for 10:00am on December 15th.

The call would need to be scheduled for some other date or time to allow one of us to participate.

To the Parties:

Good morning! At yesterday's Commission meeting, consistent with Heather's December 3, 2020 letter in these Dockets, the Commission appointed me as Hearing Officer for the purpose of conferencing with the parties regarding the proposed revised procedural schedule dates contained in Heather Smith's letter of December 3, 2020. Accordingly, I would like to schedule a conference call for the purpose of discussing the proposed revised procedural schedule as stated. I would propose Tuesday, December 15, 2020 at 11 am for the conference call. Please let me know your views regarding this time. Once we establish the date and time for the call, I will give you a conference number to call. If this date and time is not acceptable, please be aware, for rescheduling purposes, that I will be out of pocket Friday until about 2 pm, and late Monday morning until the end of the day Monday. I would also appreciate it if you would let me know if, for some reason, you do not intend to participate in the call.

David,

ORS could make someone available to be on the call at that time, however, both Ms. Pittman and myself are also counsel for ORS on a hearing scheduled in Docket 2019-209-E for 10:00am on December 15th.

The call would need to be scheduled for some other date or time to allow one of us to participate.

David,

ORS could make someone available to be on the call at that time, however, both Ms. Pittman and myself are also counsel for ORS on a hearing scheduled in Docket 2019-209-E for 10:00am on December 15th.

The call would need to be scheduled for some other date or time to allow one of us to participate.

Subject: Scheduling Conference Regarding Procedural Schedule Changes for Docket Nos. 2020-264-E and 265

To the Parties:

Good morning! At yesterday's Commission meeting, consistent with Heather's December 3, 2020 letter in these Dockets, the Commission appointed me as Hearing Officer for the purpose of conferencing with the parties regarding the proposed revised procedural schedule dates contained in Heather Smith's letter of December 3, 2020. I was given a deadline of December 15, 2020 to complete this task. Accordingly, I would like to schedule a conference call for the purpose of discussing the proposed revised procedural schedule as stated. I would propose Tuesday, December 15, 2020 at 11 am for the conference call. Please let me know your views regarding this time. Once we establish the date and time for the call, I will give you a conference number to call. If this date and time is not acceptable, please be aware, for rescheduling purposes, that I will be out of pocket Friday until about 2 pm, and late Monday morning until the end of the day Monday. I would also appreciate it if you would let me know if, for some reason, you do not intend to participate in the call.

Thanks,

David Butler
